2: EPPSL Examinations and Course

Bill Morris is carrying out examinations at JSHPC, Crickhowell on the afternoon of Saturday 7th July. There will be an opportunity for revising packing skills in the morning with Bill. This is a change to the previously announced arrangement of a day of revision on Saturday, with examinations on the Sunday, and is due to there being only two requests for examination. There will be a further day of examinations in the Peak District to follow at a later date, details to be announced. Any candidates ready for examination who would like to make use of this opportunity please contact Bill and submit an application to the office.

We also have a provisional EPS Course in October 2007 (Date and venue to be arranged). Please let Tony at the BHPA office have contact details if you are interested. Existing applicants

3. FAI licences.

We are well in to the competitions season, but still have applications for FAI licences made two days before a competition, and a large number in the two weeks before. This holds up all our other business at a busy time of year. Please try to plan ahead, send in your cards at your renewal and remember, the post is the weakest link!
